Terms and conditions of participation:

Liability - As a condition of my attendance and participation, I understand that my training at Allander Aikido Club is solely at my own risk and I hereby agree to release instructors from any and all liability for any injury, damage or loss which I may incur while training, during the course of any instruction, or in any other activity conducted by Allander Aikido Club.

Age and Health - I represent as part of this application that I am more than 13 years of age and of sound physical and mental health and condition. I understand and agree that if I am suffering from any injury or experience pain or discomfort during the course of any instruction, training or exercise, that it is my responsibility to cease that activity and bring this circumstance to the attention of the instructor immediately.

Behaviour - I understand that the instructor has the right to terminate my participation for any breach of safety regulations, abusive behaviour or disrespect shown to any instructor or student, or for any conduct which is deemed detrimental to or inconsistent with the high principles and spirit of Aikido.

Declaration - I have read this document and acknowledge that I fully understand and agree to the terms and conditions of participation.
